JH: Finding a shop like Elemental was like finding a new best friend. I was so taken with the sharp style here that I felt like I just couldn't get enough and wanted to hang out endlessly. What makes Elemental so beguiling is owner Mauricio's stellar taste in contemporary design. The beautiful objects express a level of thoughtfulness and taste, and because of this I felt sure that I was getting to know him just by shopping here. Mauricio, I know you'll find this far-fetched and ever-so-slightly stalker-like, but thank you for being a friend.
