I like stores that have the answer to every shopping conundrum and question. Where can I find a stylish vintage bag? I need a cute birthday card—where can I get one? Any ideas for a sweet baby shower gift that's organic? I want a cool collar for my new puppy—any suggestions? Believe it or not, the answer is Frances to all of the above. With one shop, Georganne has filled just about any gaping black retail hole that might have existed in this city, leaving me with only one question: when do I get to go to Frances again?
