If only giving gifts to friends and family was as easy as giving a treat to my cat, how easy life would be. I can give him an old pair of underwear and he happily bats it around, acting as if he has never had more fun. Luckily for the rest of my loved ones, there is Walrus. At this beautifully designed, spankin' new shop, Daniel and Caroline have taken the hard work out of gift giving by stocking only special, unique things sure to please those around you. A gift from Walrus will be so appreciated, think of it as catnip for humans.
